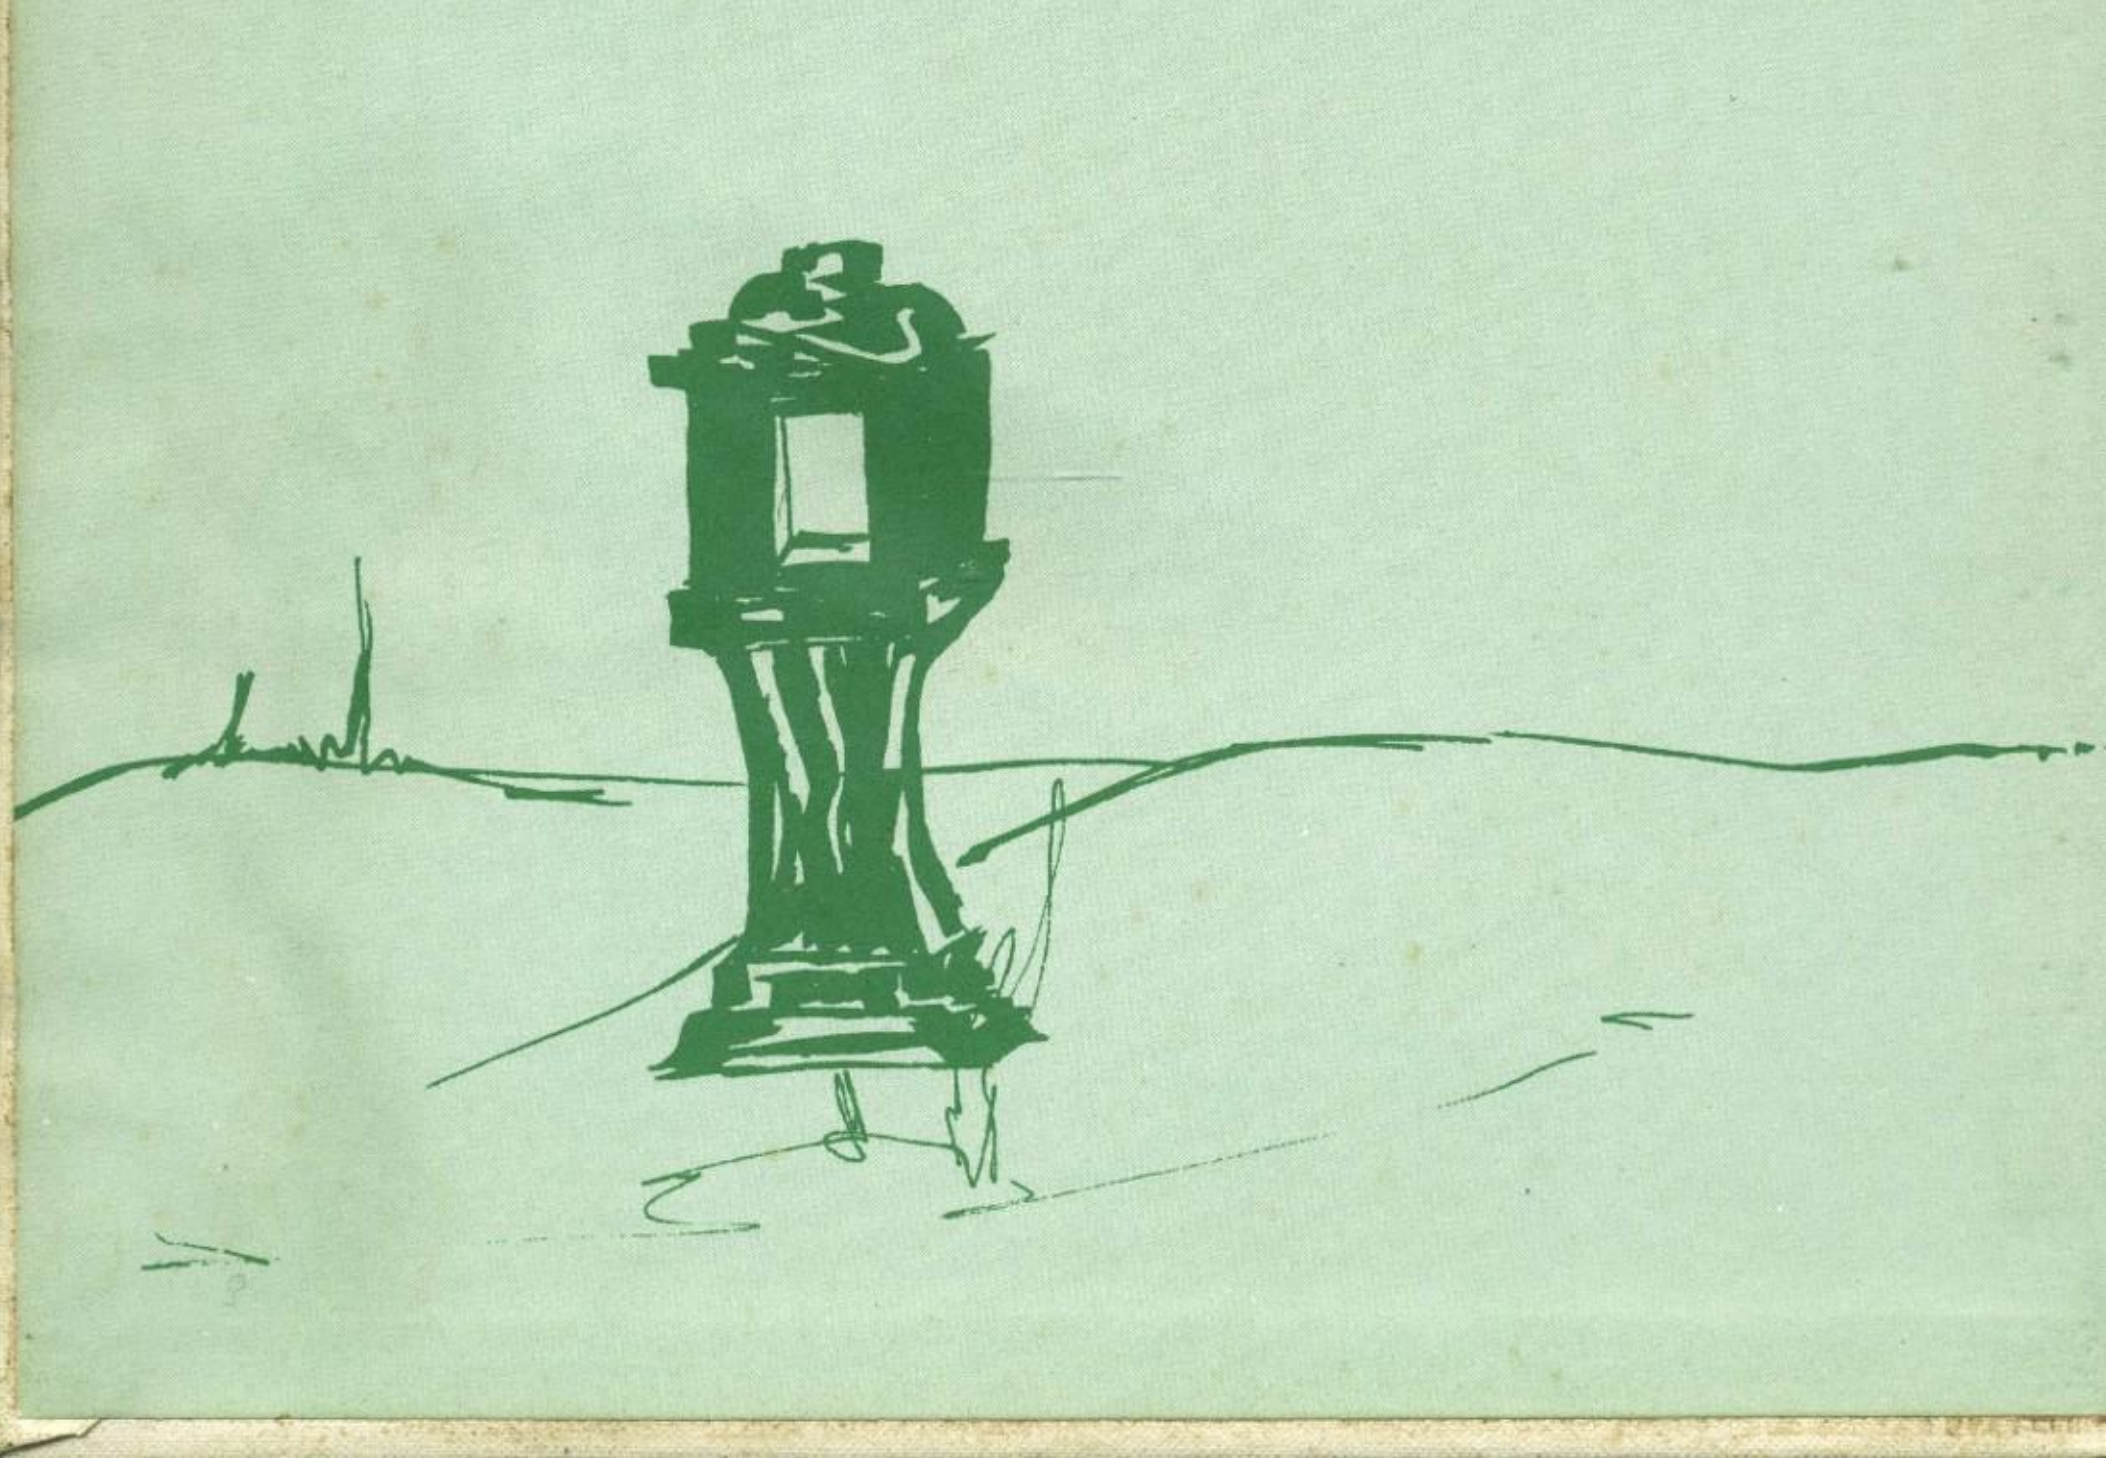
Warrior



Foreword

As we stand upon the bridge of time gazing into the stream of the future, waves of uncertainty mar our vision of the time that is to come. We have, however, cited upon our memories a clear picture of days gone by.

At Chenango Valley, the pagoda of education, the philosophers, our faculty, have conveyed to us an invaluable source of practical and factual knowledge which will be carried with us wherever our paths shall lead. The strong friendship bonds established among the students will long remain though we may be far apart. The great school spirit and good sportsmanship we have all known will always be remembered as a vital part of Chenango Valley.

Thus, after our departure, we shall always be reminded of the days spent at our honorable Alma Mater as we glance through the pages of the 1961 Warrior.

The Alma Mater

We love Chenango Valley,
Its river running through.
We love the hills around us,
Reaching to the skies so blue.

When high school days are over,
We'll strive to paths anew,
And to the colors red and grey,
We'll ever more be true.

The fourth graduating class of Chenango Valley Jr. Sr. High School takes great pleasure in dedicating the 1961 Warrior to Charles J. Osborne. Mr. Osborne, through his advisory position on the school annual and his close contact with the students through teaching social studies, has shown untiring efforts and unselfish devotion to this school. We will long remember him for his sincerity, encouragement and friendship extended to us throughout our high school life. As we, the senior class of 1961, cross the bridge into the future, we will take with us an everlasting impression of greatness recognized in Mr. Osborne.

In Memory of Paul Nolan

July 16, 1930 - December 3, 1960

"So when a great man dies
For years beyond our ken
The light he leaves behind him lies
Upon the paths of men."

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

In Memory of Kenneth Moss

August 31, 1941 - October 21, 1960

"Green be the turf above thee,
Friend of my better days!
None knew thee but to love thee.
None named thee, but to praise."

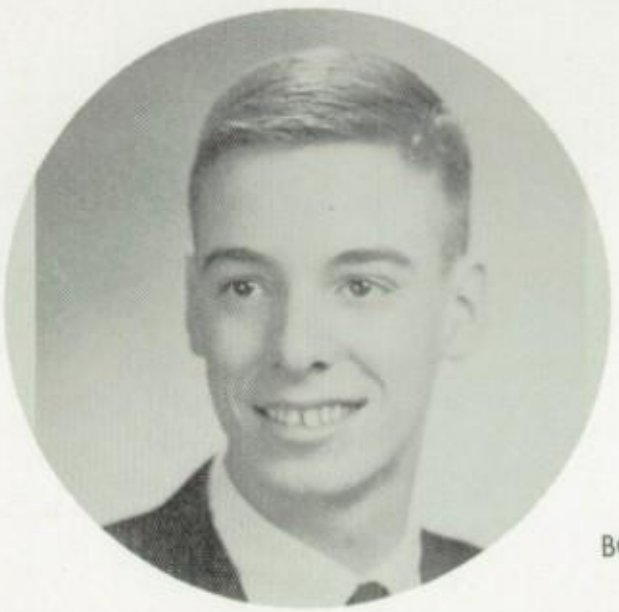
Student Council



BOB ROSE, President

MRS. HELEN HENDERSON, Advisor

The Student Council, governing organization of the student body, has as its main objectives service and leadership to the school. It is the only student organization in which students' ideas are brought up and considered. The projects for the year 1960-1961 were: the traditional dance, "The First Fall Fling," the sale of athletic passes for football and basketball games, the sale of Chenango Valley sweat shirts, and a safety program to aid students walking to and from school. A new function the Student Council is undertaking is the foreign exchange student program in cooperation with the Parent Teachers Association. The Student Council this year worked unceasingly towards a goal of good sportsmanship and leadership among students and administration under the supervision of their advisor, Mrs. Helen Henderson. The officers of the 1960-1961 Student Council were: President, Robert Rose; Vice President, Charlotte Crayton; Secretary, Bonnie Blair; Assistant Secretary, Carol Wheeler; Treasurer, Richard Reece; Assistant Treasurer, Jack Cook; Delegates at Large, Judy Branick and Thomas Houser.

Warrior

The Warrior staff, under the leadership of Mr. Charles Osborne, has worked diligently to complete the 1961 annual. Much of the credit for the completion of this year's book can be given to the editor-in-chief, Shirley Dunn. She has assumed the role as sole chief editor and the responsibilities of business and finances. Her right-hand assistant, Carla Lawson, literary editor, was in charge of all literary work on the yearbook. Other members of the staff were: Diane Brownlow, layout editor; Christine Lawrence, senior editor; Beverly Agard typing editor; and Junior editors, Judy Carkner, corresponding secretary; and Charlene Harris, Art editor. The art and commercial departments and Photography Club have also helped a great deal in the yearbook's completion. All students working on the yearbook staff were given an opportunity to gain background and experience in journalism while performing a service to the school. They began layout work in the spring of 1960 and continued with articles and advertising in the fall. The yearbook is a pictorial view of all phases of education and life at Chenango Valley.

Chenango Valley's 1960 football team ran into one of the most common problems that football teams face - injuries. The first of these injuries occurred before the first game and probably accounted for the let-down which our team suffered in its first game loss to Waterloo. The team rebounded, however, in its next two games to defeat Carthage and Eastwood in shutouts. In both games C.V. was the underdog to two of the toughest teams on its schedule. In the Owego game the team's injury jinx reached its peak when eight of the starting eleven players were struck down. The next two Saturdays the team bounced back with a resounding victory over Greene and a hard fought victory over Windsor. The following week, the Warriors could not cope with Sidney's undefeated powerhouse. At Homer on Veterans' Day, C.V. fought hard only to lose a heartbreaker. The team ended the season with a 4-4 record, not a great one, but a good one considering the over-all picture.

The 1961 version of the little Warriors showed great promise in years to come, despite their 2 - 4 record. Under the guidance of Mr. Newton, the future varsity players learned the fundamentals and plays which will help them in their future football years at C.V. The J.V.'s poor record can be explained by the fact that most of the opposing teams were reinforced by varsity players.

Basketball

Chenango Valley's 1961 Varsity Basketball team lunged into the season like a lion, exactly the opposite from last year's team. In their first game the Warriors hit hard and beat Greene's Trojans by a wide margin. The following game was against their traditional rival, Owego, and they came through with an important victory. The Warriors next made trips to Johnson City and Central and in each case extended their winning streak. The fifth victim was Union Endicott's highly rated team. Against undefeated Vestal, the team ran into shooting difficulties and fell in a hard fought battle. The Warriors rebounded to win the Sidney Christmas Tournament by defeating Cooperstown and host, Sidney. This was the second year in a row that Chenango Valley had won this tournament. Dick Reece, the Warriors' Co-Captain, set a tournament record by scoring 31 points against Cooperstown and was named most valuable player of the tournament. C.V. next swept over Norwich. The team ran into difficulties in the next three games. At Owego, the game went into "sudden death" overtime before the Warriors succumbed. The next loss was to Binghamton North and then for the second time this year, Vestal defeated C.V. The team bounded back, however, to defeat Homer and a graduation-weakened North team. J.C., the hottest team in the Southern Tier at the end of the season, got the best of the Warriors in their next game. In the Sidney game, Dick Reece, one of the highest scorers in the Triple Cities, set a new school record by scoring 32 points. The Warriors soundly defeated U.E. and held them to 37 points. This has been a good year for our Warrior Varsity Basketball team, coached by Arthur Sharpsteen. Good job, boys!

This year has been an exceptional one for Chenango Valley's Cross Country Team, coached by Mr. McDaniel. The team competed in eight meets, one of them being a Chenango Valley invitational. The schools that attended were Windsor, Maine-Endwell, and Chenango Forks; Chenango Valley took first place. The Cross Country team also became the Section Cross Country Champions over competing schools such as Vestal, North, and Owego. A Cross Country Course record of 14:35.5 was made by Dick Lampman. Dick also became the New York State Cross Country Champion. To end a very good year, the team took fourth place in the state finals.

Among the most outstanding organizations of Chenango Valley is the Varsity Club, a service organization composed of only those athletes who have earned at least one letter in a varsity interscholastic sport. Some of the activities undertaken this year were the revision of standards for varsity-letter awards in every sport. At Christmas time the members sold cards and wrapping paper as a money-raising project. The club had its annual sports picnic at the end of the school year for all varsity and junior athletes. The club is extremely active under the cooperative supervision of its advisor Mr. Robert McDaniels. Its present officers are: President, Duane Rinker; Vice-President, Reuben Beebe; Secretary, Bob Slagle; and Treasurer, Dick Reece.

With returning lettermen Ed Williams, Duane Rinker, and Cliff House and an additional sixteen unexperienced boys, our volleyball team played their hardest for the 1960-61 season. Playing against such schools as North, Central, and Johnson City, our team had a 0-18 record. We played each school twice and played three games at each match. With Mr. Smyk as the volleyball coach, a much improved record is expected next year. Good luck, boys!

WRESTLING

The 1961 wrestling team, under the direction of Wayne Harvey, ended the season with a record of 6 wins and 8 losses. The three year old Section 4 team tries to stimulate an interest among the boys at Chenango Valley in wrestling. Varsity wrestling is composed of boys from the ninth through twelfth grades. Next year it is expected that the team will have an even better record when present Jr. Varsity members are added to the varsity squad.

The Chenango Valley bowling team, which derives its membership from boys with good bowling ability, has a membership of twelve. Six of these boys compose the Varsity team, while the remaining half are on Junior Varsity. During the year there were ten interscholastic matches played against five schools at two matches each. One match was played at the opponents' home alleys and the other at our home alleys. At the end of the season, Interscholastic League awards were presented to outstanding players. League Bowling took place on Mondays or Tuesdays and practice sessions were held on Fridays.

Many Chenango Valley boys participated in soccer one of our many team sports. The game is played by two teams of eleven men each, on a field similar to a football field. CV's team is coached by Stanley Wilson and captained by Fred Donohoe and Tom Wiegele. The record this season was two games won, two games lost, and four games tied.

Golf

Girls' Intramural Sports

Girls' intramural sports are opened to any girl who desires to learn the fundamentals and rules of various sports. Teams for each sport are set up and a competitive schedule between the teams enables the players to get actual knowledge of the particular sport by playing. During the intramurals, the seventh grade girls play the eighth grade girls, ninth vs. the tenth, and eleventh vs. twelfth. Intramurals are set up for speed-a-way, field hockey, basketball, volleyball, baseball and bowling.
